

FIG. 6.—Case 18. Mustard-gas burn of 5-6 days' duration. Section through vesicle. Overlying epithelium is necrotic. The contents of the vesicle consist of homogeneous, slightly fibrinous coagulum with moderate numbers of leucocytes. The underlying corium is edematous