

LOGARITHMIC SCALE

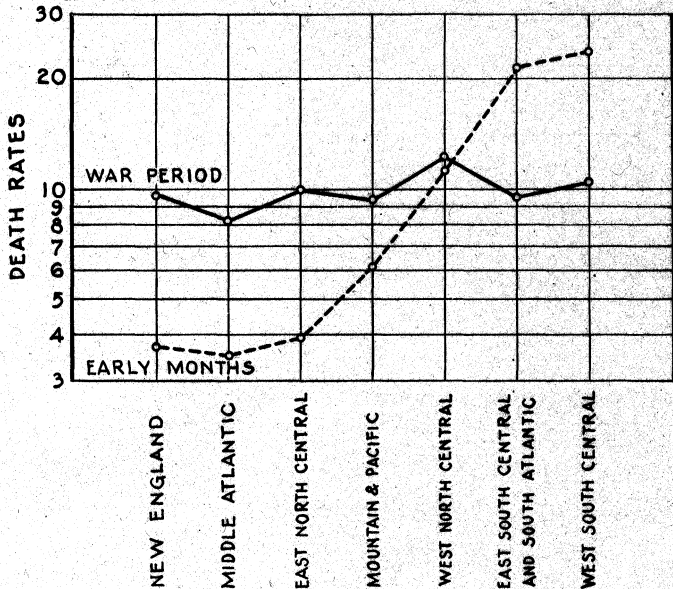

CHART XXI.—Relative death rates from the respiratory group of diseases by groups of States for the war period with the figures given by Vaughan and Palmer for the early months of the mobilization. The differences shown in the early months are largely obliterated in the longer period