

Schedule of instruction for veterinary officers—Continued

Hours	Subject	Daily lesson
	SIXTH WEEK
8	Army Regulations..... Ration returns, 1209; pay rolls; allowance blanks; deposit books.	1. Parts 1190 to 1193. 2. Parts 1194 to 1199, 1200 to 1208, 1209 to 1210. 3. Parts 1210 to 1214, 1216 to 1220. 4. Parts 1220 to 1226, 1247 to 1250. 5. Parts 1261 to 1262, 1266 to 1267, 1268 to 1269, 1267 to 1270. 6. Review. 7. Lesson daily.
10	Regulation.....
	SEVENTH WEEK
4	Army Regulations..... Property returns.	1. Parts 1271 to 1275, 1282, 1283, 1287. 2. General review. 3. 2 lesson examination.
3	Organization of veterinary units..... Tables of Organization No. 45: 1 veterinary field unit, 1 mobile veterinary unit, 1 division veterinary unit. Tables of Organization No. 100: Corps mobile veterinary hospital. Tables of Organization No. 101: Base veterinary hospital. Tables of Organization No. 102: Veterinary hospital. Veterinary equipment for units. References—Circular Letter No. 20, veterinary division, Surgeon General's Office; changes in part, 962, 964, 965, 966, 970, 971 of Manual of the Medical Department and additional paragraphs 797 to 992, annexes.	2 recitations.
3	Manual of Military Courts-Martial..... Articles of War: Formation of veterinary, special, and general courts; procedure for preferring charges, etc.	2 lectures and recitation.
2	Food packing..... Military trains, parts 314 to 316; personnel trains, parts 320 to 342; 1918 Regulations and Service Manual for Sanitary Troops, United States Army, 1918 edition.	Practical work.
	EIGHTH WEEK
4	Army paper work..... Working knowledge of reports required by Circular No. 11, veterinary division Surgeon General's Office. Form 11, A, M, D. County requisition and papers. Certificates—Issue of paid animals, Army Regulation 953, retroactive. Requisition for forage, Form 215, Q, M, C. Requisition for saltwater and kitchen animals, Form 195, Q, M, C. Certificate of breakage, Form 205, Q, M, C.; return of ordnance; return of horse equipment. Return of medical property, Form 11, A, B, C, M, D.; ration return, Form 225, Q, M, C.; survey reports, morning reports, sick reports. Veterinary facilities and supplies, Form 11, M, D. Requisition for clothing (blank), Form 104, Q, M, C. Requisition for clothing (individual) Form 104, Q, M, C.	Demonstrations and recitation.
1	Contents of the service..... Officer's Manual (1904) recommended for reference.	1 lecture, 1 recitation.
10	Manual of small arms pertaining to automatic pistol caliber .45..... Textbooks: Manual of the Automatic Pistol, caliber .45, model 1917, War Department, December 1916, 604; The Automatic Pistol's Official Issue for Issuance by Letter Order to The Adjutant General's Office, Small Arms Firing Manual, 1918, numbered to Mar. 15, 1918, part 101 to 115, unnumbered. A manual should be made to help new recruits learn the chief demonstrations and target practice, if they are not furnished. It is very important that every officer and man become thoroughly familiar with this pistol, its parts, etc.	Demonstration and knowledge of parts of pistol; practical work, target practice.
	NINTH WEEK
15	Veterinary hygiene..... Food hygiene: parts 151 to 160 Military Service Manual; water supply; disposal of manure, excrement, building sites for stables and packed lots; use of boiling water, hot boxes, racks, etc.; stable management; quarantine; methods of disinfection; floors for stalls, packed lots, methods of proper repair; drainage; disposal of human excrement, waste trash, and other refuse; insect, stamp, oil, grease and kerosene; use of lime, chalking. Trains: General and Veterinary Hygiene should be borrowed from veterinary hospital, remount depot, and used as text in cases subject thoroughly. Content of communicable diseases..... Text: Epidemics and Their Control During War (Leitch). Notes.—May be borrowed from remount veterinary hospital as noted above.	1½ lesson daily; 1 period.

1. Pt. 1.
2. Pgs. 99 to 99.
3. Pgs. 94 to 120.
4. Pgs. 121 to 126.
5. Pgs. 127 to 207.
6. Review.