

Schedule of instruction for cadetted men, Veterinary Corps—Continued

Hours	Subject	Daily lesson
FIFTH WEEK
2	Regulation..... Textbook: Preliminary instruction, 1914 Regulations and Service Manual for Sanitary Troops, 1915, pars. 33 to 35. NOTE.—If there are not sufficient horses for equitation for the entire personnel, facilities will be utilized so far as possible with view to training the largest number of men. When assigned transportation to be used for foot drill when equitation is impossible from lack of animals or equipment.	2 hours.
2	Foot drill.....	1 hour twice a week.
2	Army paper work (continued)..... 3. Sick report. See directions in sick report book. Army Regulations, pars. 3471-3472. 4. Memorandum receipts. Army Regulations, par. 391; Manual for the Quartermaster Corps, United States Army, vol. 1, 1916, pars. 2013 to 2014, inclusive. 7. Property—medical, quartermaster, ordnance (defined, Army Regulations, par. 3342). (a) Accountability and responsibility, Army Regulations, pars. 627 to 761, inclusive. (b) Unserviceable, Army Regulations, par. 628 (changed by Changes, Army Regulations No. 36, War Department, 1917)—medical, Army Regulations, par. 1488; ordnance, Army Regulations, par. 1534; accountability, Army Regulations, par. 1580; quartermaster, Army Regulations, par. 628 (changed by Changes, Army Regulations, No. 36, War Department, 1917). (c) Responsible and unaccountable—medical, p. 195, Manual of the Medical Department; quartermaster, Manual of the Quartermaster Corps, United States Army, vol. 1, 1916, par. 1207; ordnance, see ordnance price list; lost and destroyed, Army Regulations, pars. 361 to 363, inclusive. (d) Equipment—(1) veterinary units, new paragraphs of Manual of the Medical Department, 365 and 366; (2) mobile veterinary section, new paragraphs of Manual of the Medical Department, 369 and 370.	1 hour three times a week.
SIXTH WEEK
4	Foot pitching..... (1) Shoulder loads and full field equipment. (2) Presentations. (3) Hospital wall charts. Textbook, pars. 424 to 424, Drill Regulations and Sanitary Manual for Sanitary Troops 1917.	1 to 2 hours daily for allotted time.
2	Equitation.....	2 hours daily.
2	Foot drill.....	1 hour twice a week.
2	Army paper work (continued)..... 8. Morning reports, daily changes, etc. See Special Regulations, War Department, No. 37 A, 1918. 9. Dispatch to public animals. Also see changes, Army Regulations, pars. 1607, 1608, 1610. Inspection and inventory reports, public animals. Distribution, public animals, Army Regulations, par. 1673; Changes, Army Regulations, No. 36, 1917.	1 hour three times a week.
SEVENTH WEEK
2	Manual of small arms..... Textbooks: Manual of the Automatic Pistol, Caliber .45, model 1917, War Department Document No. 864 (can be obtained by letter from The Adjutant General's Office). Small Arms Firing Manual, 1917, corrected to Mar. 15, 1918, pars. 191 to 191, inclusive. Authority for ammunition for target practice and range following subcommittee order remarks on ordnance regulations: "4114 inspected ball ammunition (Misc. Div. 3, War Department, The Adjutant General's Office, Apr. 4, 1918. To the Surgeon General, returned. Being used as stated in General Order No. 8, War Department, 1918, it would seem that the allowance set forth in subparagraph C, par. 3, Special Regulations, H. War Department 1917, applies." By order of the Secretary of War, J. B. Wilson, Adjutant General.	1 to 2 hours daily for allotted time.
2	Equitation.....	2 hours daily.
2	Foot drill.....	1 hour twice a week.
2	Army paper work (continued)..... (1) Forge and requirements for same, Army Regulations, pars. 1377 to 1383. (2) Mail and mail management, Army Regulations, pars. 236 to 261. See Manual for Army Cooks.	1 hour three times a week.
EIGHTH WEEK
1	Manual of small arms (continued).....	To completion.
1	Foot drill.....	1 hour a week.
1	Equitation.....	1 hr.