

Program of first class Field Service School for Medical Officers, A. E. F., in the British lines, 1917—Continued

Hour	Wednesday, Dec. 19	Thursday, Dec. 20	Friday, Dec. 21	Saturday, Dec. 22	Sunday, Dec. 23
8.30 a. m.	Physical drill	Physical drill	Breakfast	Physical drill	8 a. m. Breakfast
9 a. m.	Breakfast	Breakfast	9.50 a. m.	Breakfast
10 a. m.	Lecture, "War surgery"	Lecture, "Wound infection and their complications"	Visit to Red Cross depot	9.30 a. m. Lecture, "War surgery"	Ambulance to station; departures
11 a. m.	Lecture, "Obscure medical diseases of the war"	Lecture, "Wound shock"	10.45 a. m. No. 39 stationary hospital	Lecture, "Relation of chaplain's department to medical services"
12 m.		Lecture, "Convalescent depots, line of communications organization"	Lecture (brief), "Treatment of N. Y. D. N."	Recent Passchendaele experiences
1 p. m.	Lunch	Lunch	Lunch—molasses	Lunch
2 p. m.	1.20 p. m. Seventeenth advance depot medical stores, baths, laundry; inspection of field ambulance equipment	Visit to corps rest station and scabies hospital	Surgical wards and infections	Visit to Haulain staff; lecture
3 p. m.			Merville laboratory	Fallacies of evidence, especially medical
4.30 p. m.	Party of surgeons to No. 1 casualty clearing station	Tea	Tea	Resume conference
5 to 8 p. m.	Clinical demonstrations and surgical operations as opportunities arise at Nos. 33 and 1 casualty clearing stations				