

Saturday, August 31:

1. Ambulance company.
2. The regimental and battalion surgeon; and the battalion aid station in trench warfare.
3. Field sketching.
4. The 4th Division in the second Battle of the Marne.

Sunday, September 1:

- 10.30 a. m. Early treatment of head and chest cases.

Monday, September 2:

1. Histopathology of war wounds.
2. The American Red Cross.
3. Internal medicine in the Army.
4. Consideration of the heart under war conditions; the effort syndrome.

Tuesday, September 3:

1. Bacteriology of war wounds.
2. The use of gum solutions in shock.
3. Field orders.
4. Wastage and replacements.

Wednesday, September 4:

1. Primary and primary delayed suture.
2. The Thomas splint drill and splinting in general.
3. Shock.
4. General considerations in the wounds of war.

Thursday, September 5:

1. General considerations in the wounds of war.
2. Field duties of division and corps surgeon.
3. Organization and general activities of the section of orthopedic surgery.
4. Field orders.

Friday, September 6:

1. } Field sketching.
2. }
3. Practical resuscitation of wounded suffering from shock.
4. Blood transfusion.

Saturday, September 7:

1. Field transportation.
2. The Army kitchen and the feeding of men; conservation of food.
3. Conference on map problem.
4. Nature and early treatment of bone and joint injuries.

Monday, September 8:

1. } Field sketching.
2. }
3. Roentgenology in this war.
4. Neurological problems in Army hospitals.

Tuesday, September 10:

1. } Map and terrain exercises.
2. }
3. The intervention of the military surgeon in ophthalmological cases.
4. Maxillofacial injuries.

Wednesday, September 11:

1. }
2. } Neurological clinic at Base Hospital
3. } 117.
4. }

Thursday, September 12:

1. } Map and terrain exercises.
2. }
3. } The field hospital.
4. }

Friday, September 13:

1. } Map and terrain exercises.
2. }
3. } Evacuation hospital.
4. }

Saturday, September 14:

1. } Map and terrain exercises.
2. }
3. The prevention and treatment of venereal disease in the American Expeditionary Forces.
4. Skin diseases.

Monday, September 16:

1. Tetanus and gas gangrene.
2. Abdominal wounds.
3. The division of laboratories in the American Expeditionary Forces.
4. General orders, bulletins, and circulars, American Expeditionary Forces.

Tuesday, September 17:

1. } Map problems.
2. }
3. Convalescent camps.
4. Gas instruction.

Wednesday, September 18:

1. }
2. } Map problems.
3. }
4. }

Thursday, September 19:

- Departure for front.