

Table 28.--PROCUREMENT AND SURVEILLANCE INSPECTIONS OF FOODS OF ANIMAL AND NONANIMAL ORIGIN, BY CLASS, 1953

[In pounds]

(Inspections of Foods of Animal Origin)

Class	Passed	Rejections
		Not type class or grade	Insanitary or unsound
Total (III-IX)	16,996,734,769	106,004,141	9,193,193
Class III: Prior to purchase	1,587,365,568	100,181,112	4,519,931
Class IV: On delivery at purchase	1,526,914,298	4,764,902	2,054,059
Class V: Receipt except purchase	3,052,041,050		674,817
Class VI: Prior to shipment	3,308,402,968		44,005
Class VII: At issue or sale	1,351,677,641		386,681
Class VIII: Purchase by Army and Air Force exchanges	211,026,247	1,058,127	1,102,985
Class IX: In storage	5,959,306,997		410,715

(Inspections of Foods of Nonanimal Origin)

Class	Passed	Rejections
		Not type class or grade	Insanitary or unsound
Total (III-IX)	16,199,023,039	17,170,621	11,346,949
Class III: Prior to purchase	134,320,499	8,714,581	790,868
Class IV: On delivery at purchase	892,308,802	8,454,849	3,327,296
Class V: Receipt except purchase	4,431,589,299		2,951,666
Class VI: Prior to shipment	3,533,461,152		19,571
Class VII: At issue or sale	1,499,797,857		1,374,072
Class VIII: Purchase by Army and Air Force exchanges	158,519,111	1,191	70,515
Class IX: In storage	5,549,026,319		2,812,961

NOTE: Causes for rejections shown under "Not type, class, or grade" include artificial color; bruised, bloody, or abraded; dirty; damaged cans or cases; rusty cans; emaciated; excessive moisture; improper containers or wrappers; improperly trimmed; insufficient smoke; mutilated; not packed as specified; not properly frozen; overweight; seedy; soft and oily; storage deterioration; undercured; underweight.

Causes for rejections shown under "Insanitary or unsound" include broken eggs; contaminated; decomposed putrid, rotten; moldy; not Bureau of Animal Industry inspected; off flavor; parasitic infestation; rancid; short vacuum; slimy; sour; stale or deteriorated; swellers and leakers; tubercular.