

Sergeant Major of the Army
Leon Van Autreve

SMA Leon L. Van Autreve

Leon L. Van Autreve, the fourth Sergeant Major of the Army, was sworn in on July 1, 1973, and served until his term ended in June of 1975. He was born in Eeklo, Belgium, on Jan. 29, 1920. SMA Van Autreve saw increasing the standards of the Army's noncommissioned officer corps as his highest priority. As part of the rejuvenation of the NCO Corps, SMA Van Autreve gave NCOs more voice in command decisions, reduced the Army's reliance on Soldiers' councils, increased professional standards for NCOs, developed the Noncommissioned Officer Education System, and encouraged NCOs to have the moral courage to police their own ranks. For these reasons we have named a hall at the AMEDD NCO Academy in honor of SMA Van Autreve.

These programs are offered to the International Community through the International Military Education Training Program (IMET) and Foreign Military Sales (FMS), U.S. Army Security Assistance Training Field Activity (SATFA), and the U.S. Army Medical Department Center and School Health Readiness Center of Excellence.
